Join with hundreds of collision repairers, insurers, suppliers and service providers at CCIF Toronto to learn new information that will help you manage your business and plan for the future.

Enjoy a day of presentations from expert speakers. Mix and mingle during the breaks with industry leaders, people who are ready to share ideas and talk with you about ways to grow and improve business or you can just get to know them in the warm and friendly atmosphere of CCIF.

CCIF is a unique open forum that welcomes collision repairers and all industry stakeholders. It focuses on best practices and practical solutions to common national issues and challenges. CCIF provides specialist presenters with new information on subjects that matter. CCIF takes place 3 times a year in different cities across Canada. CCIF meetings are professionally run, positive in nature, energizing and great value.

Hear the latest on the CCIF Skills Program, an initiative created by CCIF participants and Skills Canada to raise awareness and attract young people to a career in collision repair. During 2009 more than 70 volunteers and nearly 200 sponsors helped the Program to achieve its goals, showcasing the industry in an exciting way to thousands of young people. Learn about the Program's new, groundbreaking goals at CCIF Toronto and how you can profit from this Program. This is just one topic in a packed agenda that will include a look at industry trends around the world, business planning guidance and much more.

Register now & fax this form to Pam Bryan at CCIF – Fax: 905 726 9038 or register on line at www.ccif.net . If you do not receive confirmation from Pam, please contact us by phone.
